

Minneapolis Employment and Training Youth Programs

STEP-UP

The STEP-UP Program prepares Minneapolis youth for future employment by offering paid summer internships at Minneapolis public, private and nonprofit employers. Participants must complete credentialed work readiness training prior to placement. The STEP-UP Program includes:

STEP-UP Explore

Targeted youth populations, ages 14-21, including recent immigrants, youth with special needs and youth in existing programs receive paid work experience at nonprofit organizations and schools.

STEP-UP Discover

Youth, ages 14-21, with limited work experience and a desire to learn and develop new skills are matched with entry-level jobs at nonprofit organizations.

STEP-UP Achieve

Youth, ages 16-21, who are the most work-ready and are seeking a professional experience to help them reach their goals, are matched with employer-paid positions with private sector businesses. STEP-UP Achieve is directed by AchieveMpls.

STEP-UP Enrichment

STEP-UP youth can take advantage of many enrichment activities including:

- Specialized trainings
- College exposure and preparation
- A mentoring experience
- Weekly classroom training with an opportunity to earn academic credit

- In 2015 STEP-UP interns earned a total $2.1 million.

Lulu Bauermeister Advances Career Goals with STEP-UP

Lulu Bauermeister was a STEP-UP intern for three years. The summer of 2015, Lulu worked at Gillette Children's Specialty Care where she helped with patient check-in and registration and helped organize records and files. Lulu also shadowed staff at the hospital, visited the specialty clinics, and watched a surgery.

Lulu said, "I loved being a STEP-UP intern. I acquired many professional skills and experience in the job field I am pursuing (surgery). I'm so thankful for the numerous learning opportunities STEP-UP provided. I have also met great people and made many connections. Overall, my experience with STEP-UP has benefitted me greatly."

Lulu is currently studying pre-med at the University of Minnesota.

Minneapolis Youth Works

Minneapolis Youth Works helps Minneapolis youth and young adults learn academic, life, and work skills, identify career paths, and achieve meaningful employment. Funded via the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), the program serves out-of-school youth ages 16-24 and in-school youth ages 14-21; with an emphasis on serving out-of-school youth.

An out-of-school youth is one or more of the following: a high school dropout, a youth with a high school diploma or equivalent who is low income and is basic skills deficient or is an English language learner, an offender, a homeless, runaway or foster youth, a pregnant or parenting youth, a youth with a disability, or a low income individual who requires additional assistance to enter or complete an educational program or to secure and hold employment.

In-school youth must be low income and one or more of the following: basic skills deficient, an English language learner, an offender, a homeless, runaway or foster youth, a pregnant or parenting youth, a youth with a disability, or a low income individual who requires additional assistance to enter or complete an educational program or to secure and hold employment.

Minneapolis Youth Works Helps Students on the Path to Success

Olive, a struggling high school student, enrolled in the Minneapolis Youth Works program at East Side Neighborhood Services. With the help of Caryn, a work readiness coordinator, Olive started a twelve week internship at a custom framing shop.

It was Olive's first job. She felt it was a great fit for her as she was able to use her creative skills and develop some new skills.

At the end of her internship, the company asked Olive to stay on and gave her a raise to $9.50 per hour.

Olive said, "East Side's youth programs helped me with my personal growth, getting me back into a traditional school setting, and helping me exploring my future possibilities. I'm very thankful."
